Section 4:

Description and Definition of Success Indicators and Proposed Measurement Methodology

1. Effective Action on use of XBRL

Through the usage of XBRL enabled early warning system data for technical scrutiny of companies and detection of frauds effective action is proposed to be taken.

2. Execution of smooth exit Management and transition:

MCA21 is an e-Governance Project with TCS as partner-operator. The first phase of 6-year cycle is coming to end on 16 Jan 2013. To continue the project further, the Ministry has initiated selection process for identifying a new operator and execute smooth transition before the end of last date. The action item is very critical and pose a great challenge to maintain continuity in the service. Efforts would be made to meticulously plan the program and execute the transition smoothly.

3. Developing Training Modules:

This include designing and completion of traing modules as part of capacity building for in-service ICLS officers, Probationers and Group B officers.

4. Time of Publication in Gazette:

If the notifications are published by 31.3.2013, it will be considered as timely published in the Gazette.

5. Conducting Investor Awareness Programmes:

Programmes are proposed to be organised to bring about Investor Awareness relating to their rights as well as to conduct impact assessment by way of organising India Corporate and Investor Meet in big cities.

6. Floating of Request For Proposal:

An RFP is proposed to be floated for identifying an implementing agency for the introduction of egovernance to winding up of companies in an effort to streamline the entire process. This activity has been projected by the Ministry as a Plan Scheme during the Seventh Five Year Plan.

7. Signing of MOU:

This includes signing of an MOU between MCA/CCI and US Department of justice and US Federal Trade Commission on anti-trust cooperation.
