Sub. : Information sought under RTI Act 2005 and RTI Rules

Sir,

Please refer to your application dated 02.12.2013 on the above mentioned subject received through nodal CPIO Coordination Section, Ministry of Corporate Affairs on 23.01.2014. Information pertaining to point no. 1, 3 and 4 are not concerned with the CPIO, AD-II. So far as information pertaining to Point No. 2 of your RTI Application is concerned, it is stated that the information sought is not specific.

2. However, as inferred from point no. 2 of your application, it is mentioned that the promotions to various posts in MCA are made after following due process as per relevant Recruitment Rules in respect of respective posts. Recruitment Rules of various posts are available on the official website of Ministry of Corporate Affairs and can be accessed at www.mca.gov.in In case, you require copy of the Recruitment Rules for any specific post, you may specify and the same will be made as and when request are received, as per provisions of RTI Act, 2005 and RTI Rules, 2012.

3. If, you are not satisfied with the reply you may appeal to the First Appellate Authority within 30 days of receipt of this letter at the following address:

6. Grounds of Appeal :

The Act confers Right to Information on citizens of India. The Act makes it obligatory on the CPIO to provide information to citizens in the form as desired by the applicant, as far as possible, and within 30 days.

My requisition for the information was dated 2/12/2013, received by CPIO through CPIO of Mulund City Post (Mumbai 400 080) on 23/12/2013, copy enclosed. The statutory period – assuming 5 days for receipt through post – of 30 days ended on 28/1/2014. Reply is not received till the date of filing this appeal.

CPIO has failed to provide information within specified time, which is obligatory under the RTI Act 2005.

CPIO has thus rendered himself liable for penalty under the ACT and also to provide the information free of cost to the undersigned.

The CPIO has not given any reason valid under the ACT, for not providing the information. The CPIO has thus failed to comply with the provisions of the RTI Act and also failed to provide information as requested.

Relief Sought :

- a) Please instruct the CPIO to give the requested information forthwith.
- b) Recommend to the Information Commission that a penalty should be levied on the PIO under section 20 (1) of the Act 22 of 2005, for not providing the information as mandated in the law.

Sir,

You have filed an appeal dated 30.01.2014 to state that the CPIO has failed to provide information as requested in your application dated 02.12.2013, and to instruct the CPIO to give the requested information. I presume that CMA Shekhar Shrikrishna Joshi and Shekhar C. Joshi is the same person. (Original application dated 02.12.2013 was from Shekhar C. Joshi but the appeal dated 30.01.2014 is from CMA Shekhar Shrikrishna Joshi – the postal address being the same). Accordingly, action is being taken to dispose the appeal.

2. I have checked the records and found that the CPIO has already replied to you on 05.02.2014. A copy of the same is enclosed for your information.
3. The appeal is disposed of as above.

Sub: Appeal under Right to Information Act, 2005.

Sir,

Please refer to your appeal dated 22.01.2014 which was routed through Department of Posts, Mumbai. You have made an appeal that CPIO has not given the reply. I have checked the records and found that CPIO & Under Secretary (Ad.II) had sent a reply to you on Point No.2, which should have reached you by now. However, CPIO is directed to send a copy of the reply again to you. It may also be mentioned that Points No.1, 3 and 4 do not concern US(Ad.II) as the nodal CPIO and undersigned as the nodal Appellate Authority.

2. Under Secretary (Coordination/RTI) has sent those points to other CPIOs for reply. He is being directed to check whether request for information pertaining to Points 1,3 & 4 has been disposed of suitably.
3. The appeal is disposed as above insofar as Point 2 is concerned.
4. Appeal, if any, can be filed against the decision of Appellate Authority with CIC within 30 days of receipt of this communication.

Yours faithfully

Sir,

Please refer to my letter of even number dated 10.03.2014, wherein it has been mentioned that CPIO & Under Secretary (Ad.II) has sent you a reply on Point No.2. The records have been rechecked and it has been found that your request for information has not been received by CPIO & Under Secretary (Ad.II). The mistake has occurred because a similar request for information had been received from Shri Shekhar C Joshi, 501, Sai Vilas Apartment, Sai Complex, Navghar Road, Mulund (East), Mumbai (same address as yours) which was disposed of by CPIO & Under Secretary (Ad.II) on 05.02.2014.

2. In view of above, I am asking CPIO & Under Secretary (Ad.II) to send you reply on Point 2 as mentioned in the appeal. There is no other change in the said letter.
3. Inconvenience caused is regretted. A copy of letter disposing of your appeal is also enclosed for ready reference.
